SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

X The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

X The defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall pay the fine in installments of $15.00 or ten percent of his net monthly income, whichever is greater to commence 30 days after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision.

X The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

X The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.

X Due to the defendant's substance abuse history, he shall participate as directed and approved by the probation officer in treatment for narcotic addiction, drug dependence, or alcohol dependence, which includes urinalysis or other drug detection measures and which may require residence and/or participation in a residential treatment facility. Any participation will require complete abstinence from all alcoholic beverages. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with substance abuse counseling and/ or testing based on a copay sliding fee scale approved by the United States probation Office. Copay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling. The number of tests shall not exceed 52 in a one year period.

X Due to the defendant's propensity to re-Offend, the defendant shall submit his person, residence, real property, place of business, computer, or vehicle to a search, conducted by the United States Probation Officers at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.
